

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen

Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has improved time at home, with fewer interruptions from unwanted calls. It is rare that we receive a unwanted calls.